

DECEMBER 2018

House Beautiful

PRETTIEST
HOLIDAY YET!

+
19
MUST-KNOW
TRENDS FOR 2019

$4.99

12 >

08458

0 270561 3

Contents

<< Continued from page 4

DECEMBER 2018 | HOUSE BEAUTIFUL

The dining area in CeCe Barfield Thompson's New York City apartment.

40

In Every Issue

The Insider

Continued from page 4

SPOTLIGHT

Michelle Obama on Her Return to Domestic Life

HOLIDAY SPECIAL

It's a Blue Christmas

47

The Essentials

KITCHEN OF THE MONTH

A Seaside Rhode Island Kitchen Built for Family Gatherings

HOLIDAY WITH LULU

Three No-Fuss Gift Baskets from Lulu Powers

Partnerships

At House Beautiful, our goal is to create an ever more dynamic, engaging magazine. In this issue, we continue a feature called In Partnership With, a collaboration between the editorial team and select like-minded advertisers, to produce a unique reader experience.

21

COLOR MATCH

How to use Sherwin-Williams paints in shades of green to create a festive backdrop for holiday decorations

30

THE 19 FOR 2019

With a cozy velvet love seat from Ethan Allen, you can curl up at home and revel in the "joy of missing out."

Blue Christmas

It's the most wonderful time of the year, but we're feeling the blues—and moody ceruleans and vivid turquoises. Read on to see how a touch of these hues can add a refreshing seasonal kick.

1.

Matters of the Hearth

Designer CeCe Barfield Thompson took her holiday-decorating cues from the muted blues in the painting by Rosie Quick and the Lee Jofa floral print on a pair of armchairs in her Manhattan living room. “Maroon and blue is such an unexpected combination,” she says of the vintage ribbons and bulbs intertwined with the magnolia-and-evergreen garland. “It’s a wonderful focal point, especially with a roaring fire!” Ribbons, Tinsel Trading. >